"Beloved, I pray that in all respect you may prosper and be in good health, just as your soul prospers." 3 John 2 (NASB)

My beloved Brethren in Christ Jesus, accept warmest Christian greetings as we wind down another warm summer. It is my hope that this email finds you all well, both spiritually and physically. Because of God's infinite grace, He continues to keep us in good health and well-being.

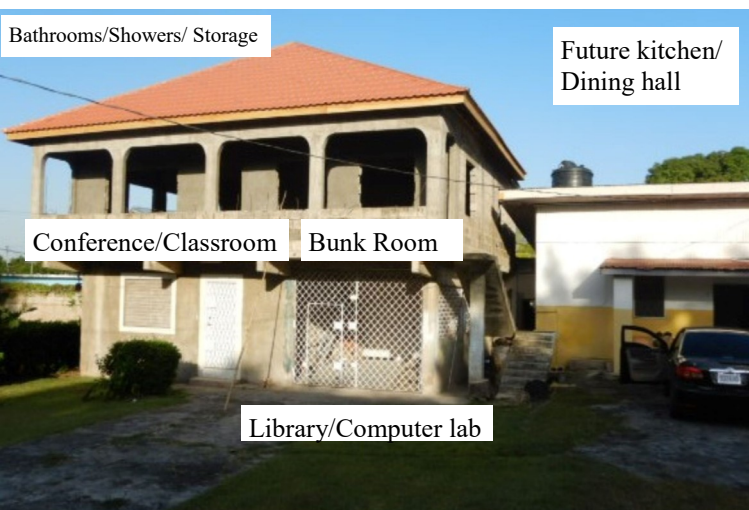

I truly want to express my deepest gratitude and appreciate for your continuous prayers and support in this very challenging time, as we all grapple with this ravishing pandemic. Thank you for demonstrating the love of Christ in you.

Despite all that is going on around us, we (Ingrid and I) continue to execute our duty in the LORD'S service faithful, as the Holy Spirit leads. Our humble service of evangelism and encouragement, the distributing of the Holy Scriptures and breads continue to make a progressive, positive impact in the lives of others. Your support to this cause continue to be invaluable; thank you. I continue assist in public speaking in the ministry of preaching and teaching at the Beecher Town Church of Christ; the patients who visits the health centres in the towns of Claremont and Moneague on a Tuesday morning also receive their dose of spiritual attention. Home visits continues to be a paramount in our service to the LORD, as this also give us the opportunity for private speaking and encouragement.

Because of the pandemic, there seems to be a lot of despair all around, even within the churches; I seen where some brethren are just going through the motions. I ask for special prayers on the church's behalf, that they will stand firm.

Covid 19 infections are on the up again, even far more than our first two "&" waves. The government is doing their best, but still there are very defiant folks out there who insist on their own thing, and now we all pay for it. Because of the sharp rise, we currently have days of lock down in order to try to bend the curve. This has it's impact on the LORD'S work, but still He's blessing us with creative faith to get it done.

My beloved, as we continue to press along the upward way, let us continue to commend each other in loving arms of our ETERNAL FATHER. May the grace and peace of our LORD rest upon you all. Fellow servants in Christ, Ingrid and Rhon Steer
